MR-QAPP training course

Weight-of-Evidence Decision Making for Munitions Response Sites

This 2-day course is based on the Munitions Response Quality Assurance Project Plan Toolkit Module 1: Remedial Investigation (RI)/ Feasibility Study (FS) and Module 2: Remedial Action (RA). The training demonstrates weight-of-evidence decision making for the RI/FS and RA phases at a munitions response site. It covers project planning, data quality objective development and data usability assessment. As a prerequisite, attendees are encouraged to take the online ITRC training course, “Quality Considerations for Multiple Aspects of Munitions Response Sites” (<https://qcmr-1.itrcweb.org/training/>).

For schedules and registration:

Army - Nancy Flaherty (Nancy.E.Flaherty@usace.army.mil)

Air Force - Michael Book (michael.book.1@us.af.mil)

Navy - Bryan Harre (bryan.l.harre.civ@us.navy.mil)

Regulators - Doug Maddox (Maddox.Doug@epa.gov)

Contractors - Ivy Harvey from NAOC (IHarvey@eaest.com)
