

Conclusions for Middleport

- Bioavailability studies show that oral absorption is reduced and dermal absorption is negligible
- Biomonitoring study showed that Middleport residents do not have elevated arsenic exposures
- Risk assessment should incorporate these findings