THE FIVE W'S OF THE RSC

- Where: Organization
- Why: Provide support to Geographic Districts
- Who: Technical experts
- What: Capabilities
- When: Our current supported projects

RSC ORGANIZATION

- The Range Support Center is one of four U.S. Army Corps of Engineers military munitions design centers (MMDC).
- The RSC is a regional organization with project delivery teams (PDTs) staffed with technical experts from five USACE Districts:
  - South Pacific Division (SPD)
    - Albuquerque (SPA)
    - Los Angeles (SPL)
    - Sacramento (SPK)
  - Southwest Division (SWD)
    - Fort Worth (Regional Planning and Environmental Center)
    - Tulsa (RPEC)

RSC SUPPORT

- The Range Support Center supplies technical specialists and subject matter experts to other USACE districts (Geographic Districts).
- The Geographic Districts handle the associated Project Management tasks and rely on a MMDC to address the technical components of a project.
