NAICS: 562910. This sources sought notice is issued only for market research purposes to determine the availability of firms to perform remediation activities and all required support (i.e., construction and site maintenance) at the Formerly Utilized Sites Remedial Action Program (FUSRAP) Luckey Site near the Village of Luckey, Wood County, OH. All firms of appropriate background are encouraged to respond, including HUBZone, 8(a), SDVOSB, and small and large business under NAICS code 562910, small business size standard 750 employees. The Luckey site was formerly used for beryllium processing, and contaminants of concern include beryllium, lead, radium-226, thorium-230, uranium-234, and uranium-238 in soils, sediments, fill materials, other miscellaneous debris, and groundwater. Remediation services are currently being performed on site by North Wind Portage. The work and services will consist of environmental remediation and support for the USACE Buffalo District. The project involves excavation, transport, and disposal of FUSRAP-contaminated soil, sediment, and materials at a properly licensed facility. USACE anticipates issuing a cost-plus fixed-fee contract (some fixed price line items may be included) for a period of performance up to 10 years (including options). Total project magnitude is estimated at $100M - $250M. USACE anticipates releasing the RFP in 2020 with a contract award in 2021. Potential offerors having the skills and capabilities necessary to perform the described project are invited to provide feedback via email. CAPABILITIES STATEMENTS ARE DUE NO LATER THAN 10:00 AM ET ON OCTOBER 11, 2019.
